

Dear FCC:

Television is already filled with filth. I would hate to see what would happen if you relax your standards. The First Amendment was not designed to protect profanity, vulgarity, pornography and obscenities. Please maintain the current standards for our public viewing. Keep filth off the airwaves.

Thank you,

Mrs. Shauna Oakeson